34 GOLDS AND 139 SILVERS AWARDED AT THE NORTHWEST ADDY COMPETITION

BOISE, ID – Judging for the Northwest ADDY Awards was held in Boise, Idaho, April 9-10. The judges for the competition were Tony Sharpe, Senior Vice President, Creative Director at draftfcb Chicago, Mike Stark, Vice President, Executive Producer at Team Detroit, and Skip Tramontana, Creative Director at Lakespeed Inc. The judges evaluated over 635 entries (554 professional, 81 student) in this year’s competition for the Northwest ADDY Awards.

- TM Advertising was awarded Best of Show Broadcast for their Television spot “Silent Killer”, for Group Health Cooperative.
- Quisenberry Marketing and Design was awarded Best of Show Print for their URM 2009 Annual Report for URM.
- Best of Show New Media was awarded to Stoltz Marketing Group for the “To Hell with Prep” online campaign for Simplot Food Group.
- Special Judge’s Choice awards were given to Creature for their Jansport Bonnaroo non-traditional advertising campaign, and Q102-KCHQ for their Silver Horse Shoe radio campaign.
- Best of Show in the Student category went to Cheyenne Osmundsen from Montana State University for the XL Country Radio Station logo.

The Northwest ADDY Awards is an annual creative competition sponsored by District XI of the America Advertising Federation (AAF); the advertising industry’s largest trade organization. District XI is comprised of local clubs in the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and the Canadian provinces of British Columbia and Alberta.

The Northwest ADDY Awards are the second tier of a three-tiered national competition sponsored by AAF. The winners at this competition have earned the right to proceed onto national judging which a national judging panel will hold in Washington D.C.
